

Improving the well-being of the poor and vulnerable in our hometowns and around the world

Hello from Baltimore!

The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation is committed to keeping in touch with its many grantees, partners, and other stakeholders. The Weinberg Foundation believes grants overviews like this one are a vital part of the communications process. These overviews highlight selected grants within each of the Foundation's program areas as well as across broader communities of funding, all reflecting the Foundation's mission of meeting basic human needs and enhancing an individual's ability to meet those needs. Within that context, emphasis is placed on older adults and the Jewish community, both nationally and in our global "hometowns" including metropolitan Baltimore, Hawaii, northeastern Pennsylvania, Israel, and the Former Soviet Union.

With total assets of approximately $2 billion and annual total grant distributions of nearly $100 million, The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation is proud of its commitment to the Jewish community worldwide. In fact, roughly half of all Weinberg Foundation grants are directed toward programs, services, and capital projects provided by or benefitting Jewish organizations. In just the past three years, the Foundation has approved or paid nearly 400 grants serving the Jewish community.

Nowhere is that support more evident than in care for older adults. Since 2008, The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation has approved more than $70 million in grants to Jewish organizations dedicated to aging with dignity and improved quality of life. The Weinberg Foundation has taken a leading role in supporting and assisting those who care for our parents and grandparents, and who will eventually care for -- us. Building upon the success of its initial $8.1 million Caregiver Initiative, the Weinberg Foundation now hopes to create a national model for the care of older adults and those with disabilities. This complements the Foundation's commitment to urban "Green House" residences for older adults, a radical departure from traditional nursing homes. The Weinberg Foundation contributed $2.4 million for the construction of the first facility of this kind in the nation at the Chelsea Jewish Nursing Home in Massachusetts. The Foundation also awarded just over $2 million to Maryland's first Green House residence for older adults, The Green House Residences at Stadium Place in Baltimore.

But perhaps the Foundation's single-most noteworthy accomplishment is the Weinberg Holocaust Survivors Emergency Assistance Fund, currently supported through 2016. The $10 million "Weinberg Fund" provides a range of emergency services to survivors throughout North America including medical equipment and medications, dental care, transportation, food, and short-term home care. One in four aging survivors lives alone in the U.S. and an estimated 37% live at or below the poverty level, a level that is five times the rate of other older adults in the United States.

In the following pages, the Foundation has identified selected grants of $50,000 or more that were approved or distributed from March 1, 2009 (the start of fiscal year 2010) through September 1, 2012. We are pleased to report that, during that time, the Foundation approved grants to Jewish organizations totaling more than $138 million. In addition, the Foundation paid more than $143 million; a total investment of nearly $282 million in the well-being and security of the Jewish community within the United States and abroad.

Here are just a few highlights:

- The Weinberg Foundation continued its long-standing partnership with the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), approving more than $65 million in grants to the organization just since 2010. JDC is the largest single grant recipient of the Foundation.
- Since 2008, the Foundation has approved nearly $30 million in grants to The Associated: Jewish Community Federation of Baltimore for its annual operating and capital campaigns as well as grants to agencies of the Associated, including CHAI, the Center for Jewish Education, and Jewish Community Services.
- The Foundation announced the establishment of a five-year, $10 million grant to fund emergency services for Holocaust survivors residing in North America through the Conference of Jewish Materials Claims Against Germany (The Claims Conference).
- The Foundation provided a major $10 million grant to Levindale Hebrew Geriatric Center and Hospital in Baltimore. This is the largest gift to a long-term care facility in the Foundation's history. The grant is part of a construction project that has set a new standard for excellence in elder care.

The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation is privileged to partner with so many extraordinary organizations, all dedicated to serving the Jewish community. That collaborative effort is reflected in this summary report which the Foundation invites you to review. If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to contact the Foundation.

Sincerely,

Rachel Garbow Monroe

Roughly half of all Weinberg Foundation grants are directed toward programs, services, and capital projects provided by or benefitting Jewish organizations. In just the past three years, the Foundation has approved or paid nearly 400 grants serving the Jewish community.

With total assets of approximately $2 billion, The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation is one of the largest private, charitable foundations in the United States, funding nonprofits that provide direct services to poor and vulnerable people, primarily in the U.S. and Israel.

Foundation grants are allocated through several program areas and are focused on meeting basic needs such as shelter, nutrition, health, and socialization and on enhancing an individual’s ability to meet those needs. Older Adults and Workforce are funded nationally and in Israel while Basic Human Needs and Health; Disabilities; Education, Children, Youth and Families; and General Community Support fund direct service providers in our “hometown” communities of metropolitan Baltimore, northeastern Pennsylvania, Hawaii, and Israel. The Maryland Small Grants Program (MSGP) includes all Foundation grantmaking areas, funding nonprofits which are headquartered in Maryland or provide direct service primarily to Maryland residents.

In the past three fiscal years, The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation approved or paid grants totaling nearly $282 million to organizations serving the Jewish community. During that time, the Foundation approved grants to Jewish-focused organizations totaling more than $138 million. In addition, the Foundation paid more than $143 million in previously approved grants.
